ARTICLE I

NAME AND LOCATION

The name of this incorporated organization is Visit Pensacola, Inc. ("Visit Pensacola or the Corporation"). Its principal office shall be located within the limits of Escambia County, Florida, the exact address to be designated by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE II

MISSION, OBJECTIVES AND PROGRAMS

Section 1. Mission. The following statements express the mission of the Corporation:

- A. Visit Pensacola is organized exclusively for the common business interest of promoting and improving tourism related business activities throughout Escambia County, in accordance with Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). Visit Pensacola is not organized for profit or to engage in an activity of a kind ordinarily carried on for profit. Visit Pensacola shall observe all local, state, and federal laws which apply to non-profit organizations under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
- B. The Corporation is a voluntary not-for-profit private organization designed to enhance visitor, tourism, meeting, and convention development efforts within Escambia County, and increase tourism development tax collection in Escambia County.
- C. The Corporation shall conduct the unified promotion of the various municipal and unincorporated areas of Escambia County and their unique attributes and resources for visitors, tourists, meetings, and conventions. This unified promotion by the Corporation is desirable and to the mutual advantage of participating public agencies and private industry.
- D. Visit Pensacola believes that this unified promotion is best achieved by the formation of this private not-for-profit corporation that will enhance cooperation within the private and public sector of Escambia County, expand the Escambia County economy, create additional jobs, and increase direct spending which results in increased broad tax collection.
- E. The Corporation has the responsibility to promote the common business interest of the County's tourism industry through advertising and marketing activities and to assure the adequacy and effectiveness of laws affecting the common business interest of the tourism, meetings, and conventions industry through appropriate legislative and administrative activity.
- F. The Corporation will comply with Florida State Statute §125.0104 and will expend tourism development tax (TDT) funds in accordance with the legal restrictions of this statute.
- G. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

Section 2. Objectives. The objectives of the Corporation shall be to promote the common business interest of the County's tourism industry, and to unify the private sector, visitor, tourism, meetings, and convention interests of the various incorporated and unincorporated areas of Escambia County so that they speak with a collective, focused voice of authority on issues that affect the tourism industry including:

- A. Establishing a private forum for discussion and agreement on matters that will enhance the state of the visitor, tourism, meetings, and convention industries in Escambia County.
- B. Supporting those private sector programs that the Corporation believes are appropriate for visitor, tourism, meetings, and convention development; and, where necessary, to work for the modification and improvement of those programs.
- C. Eliminating duplication of services and programs and maximizing the effectiveness of public and private sector agencies by creating a single, strong visitor, tourism, meetings, and convention promotion organization, which will represent the entire county in a comprehensive and efficient manner.
- D. Working to maintain existing visitor, tourism, meetings, and convention business and to develop new programs to substantially enhance and attract new visitor, tourism, meetings, and convention business to Escambia County.

Section 3. Programs. Consistent with its stated mission and objectives, the Corporation shall:

- A. Develop an effective marketing and promotion program to describe the advantages of Escambia County as a whole for travel, leisure and business.
- B. Cooperate, counsel and contract with other organizations and governments on appropriate activities relating to the development of visitor, tourist, meetings, and convention business.
- C. Stimulate an understanding of laws, rules, ordinances, and regulations affecting the Escambia County tourism industry, and develop legislative activity to promote legislation consistent with this goal.
- D. Encourage the participation and involvement of volunteers in the activities of the Corporation.
- E. Do such other things and promote, encourage and perform such other acts as the Corporation may deem necessary to accomplish its mission and objectives.
- F. Provide support to local private non-profit organizations and government agencies to encourage mutually advantageous contracts with the Corporation to achieve its missions and objectives, and maximize effectiveness and efficiencies.
- G. Support and encourage the regional cooperation of the non-profit private sector including their joint support of programs, legislation and advertising for their mutual best interest by reducing duplication of efforts and reducing costs.
- H. Develop support for the Corporation by encouraging membership in tourism related private non-profit organizations and business entities throughout Escambia County and increasing the participation of all members to promote the common business interest of the County's tourism industry.
- I. All meetings shall be properly publicly noticed and conducted as directed by the State of Florida Sunshine laws, and all records shall be maintained as directed by the State of Florida Public Records laws as applicable.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. MEMBERSHIP. Persons, corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships, associations, or firms which the Board decides conform to the mission and objectives of the Corporation shall be eligible for consideration as a member ("Member") elected to membership ("Membership") by the Board of Directors ("Board") as hereinafter provided. Membership in Visit Pensacola is non-transferable and may not be assigned by any Member. The Board of Directors may award non-voting Honorary Membership to individuals at its discretion. Honorary Members are not required to pay dues and shall not have a vote or serve on the Board.

- A. APPROVAL OF MEMBERS. Upon written application, any person, corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association or firm eligible for Membership under these Bylaws may be approved as a Member of the Corporation upon a majority vote of the Board. The Membership application shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Corporation and shall include the name, address, and occupation of the applicant and, if a corporation, limited liability company, partnership, association or other organization, the name of the individual who shall represent such organization or, in his or her absence, the designated alternate representative. Thereafter, eligibility for continued membership will require that the member remain in good standing with the Corporation, including satisfaction of all financial obligations of membership, such as dues, fees and assessments that have been approved or directed by the Board.
- B. DUES AND ASSESSMENTS. Members shall pay dues and assessments in such amounts and at such times as the Board may prescribe from time to time. Any Member who shall fail to pay any dues or assessments for a period of sixty (60) days after the due date thereof shall be notified in writing of such nonpayment, and, if the amount due is not then paid within thirty (30) days after the mailing of such written notice, the Board may, in its discretion, terminate the Membership. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Bylaws, unless expressly authorized by the Board, municipal, county or other government ("Government") entities shall be exempt from the payment of dues or other assessments. The Government entity Membership shall be non-voting and those Members shall not serve on the Board.
- C. Authorized Representative. Each approved Member, other than a natural person, shall set forth in writing one authorized representative for purposes of Membership, which shall be a partner, officer or employee. This authorized representative shall have the authority to vote at the meetings of the Corporation on behalf of the Member he represents, exercise all rights and duties granted to said Member; and, act as needed to honor all obligations and responsibilities required of said Member of the Corporation.
- D. TERMINATION, SUSPENSION OR RESIGNATION OF MEMBERSHIP. Any Member may resign as a Member at any time by giving written thirty (30) day notice of resignation to the Corporation. Any Member may be suspended or terminated from Membership by the Board for cause, including without limitation the nonpayment of dues or assessments after notice as provided in Section B above; conduct by the Member that is in the good faith judgment of the Board is a violation of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Corporation or is contrary to the mission and objectives of the Corporation. No Member is entitled to cast a vote during any period of suspension of Membership in the Corporation. The suspension or expulsion of a Member will not relieve the Member from liability for any and all dues, assessments or financial obligations owed to the Corporation which may be accrued or remain unpaid at the time of the Members suspension or expulsion.
- E. VOTING PRIVILEGES - Each Member of Visit Pensacola shall hold voting privileges in accordance with, and for the purposes set forth in, these Bylaws. Each Member that is in good standing and current on all dues and assessment shall have one (1) vote on matters that come before the general Membership.

Section 4 – STAGGERED BOARD - The Board shall consist of eleven (11) Directors elected in the manner herein specified. The initial terms shall be staggered with three (3) directors with a one (1) year term, four (4) directors with a two (2) year term and four (4) directors with a three (3) year term. The terms of the initial Board shall be determined by drawing terms out of a box at the Board's initial meeting. Thereafter each Director shall be elected for a three (3) year term.

Section 5 - ELECTION – A notification to the general Membership of open board positions and procedure for applying for said seats should occur no later than ninety (90) days before the start of the fiscal year (October 1st). The Members shall have until sixty (60) days from the start of the fiscal year to provide names for the available seats to the Nominating Committee. The Chairman shall appoint a Nominating Committee which shall review applications for Board consideration and submit final candidates for available seats to the Board no later than thirty (30) days before the end of the fiscal year. The Nominating Committee shall present its recommendations of Directors and officers to the Membership at its annual meeting at which time the Members shall elect the new Directors and officers. Voting shall be by those physically present at the meeting. Newly elected Directors term of service will begin on October 1st of each year.

Section 6. RE-ELECTION TO BOARD. A Director is eligible to serve for a three (3) year term, and must have spent one (1) year not serving on the Board between the terms before being re-elected.

Section 7. ATTENDANCE. Any Director who shall not have attended at ten (10) of the regular and special meetings of the Board of Directors per term year may be removed upon a majority vote of the other Directors; provided the Board has not excused the absences for cause.

Section 8. VACANCIES. In the event of death, resignation, retirement, removal or disqualification by virtue of a change in a Director's employment position during his or her term of office, a successor shall be elected by the Board to serve until the next general Membership meeting at which time the Members shall elect a Director to fill the remaining term. Any Director elected to represent one of the positions or industries who changes his or her position or industry from one of such designated areas for a continuous period of sixty (60) days shall be replaced by a Director appointed by the Board of Directors who is qualified by his or her position or industry to represent such designated seat on the Board.

Section 9. REMOVAL. Any Director elected by the Membership or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board by a two-third (2/3rd) vote whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation will be served thereby.

Section 10. COMPENSATION & COST. No member of the Board of Directors shall be compensated for his services as a Director of the Corporation; nevertheless, each Member of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to be reimbursed for the ordinary, reasonable and necessary costs and expenses incurred in rendering his services as a Director. The reimbursement to a Director shall be approved in writing by the Board Chairman and Treasurer stipulating the purpose for the expense and receipts must be provided for all expenses.

Section 11. BOARD MEETINGS/QUORUM

- A. Regular Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held no less frequently than twelve (12) times per fiscal year, at such times and places as determined by the Board.
- B. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chairman, the Vice Chairman in the absence of the Chairman, or any six (6) Directors.
- C. Notice of Meetings. Written notice stating the time and place of a regular Board meeting shall be given to each Director not less than seven (7) days before the date of the scheduled meeting. Written notice stating the time, place and purpose of a special meeting shall be given to each Director not less than four (4) days before the date of the scheduled meeting. Such notice shall be deemed to be made when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the Director at its address as it appears on the records of the Corporation, with postage thereon prepaid, or when actually transmitted by electronic mail, if correctly directed to an electronic mail address at which the Director has consented to receive notice.
- D. Waiver of Notice. Any Director may waive notice of any meeting. The attendance by a Director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting, except where a Director attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened.
- E. Quorum. The number of Directors comprising a simple majority of the Directors then in office shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the act of a majority of the Directors physically present at any meeting shall constitute the act of the Board.
- F. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, all notices shall comply with Florida Sunshine laws, as applicable.

ARTICLE VII
