

Liki-ingo

Built for speed, the aerodynamic Liki-Go-Go is heavily plastered with stickers from popular NASCAR drivers and super-charged, car care expert Bobby Likis.

Say What

This Flamingo is covered with all the "great ideas" the Pensacola city staff has conceived for our fair city—long-term leases for out-of-state cement companies, Trillium development plans and the closing of youth baseball fields to expand the airport.

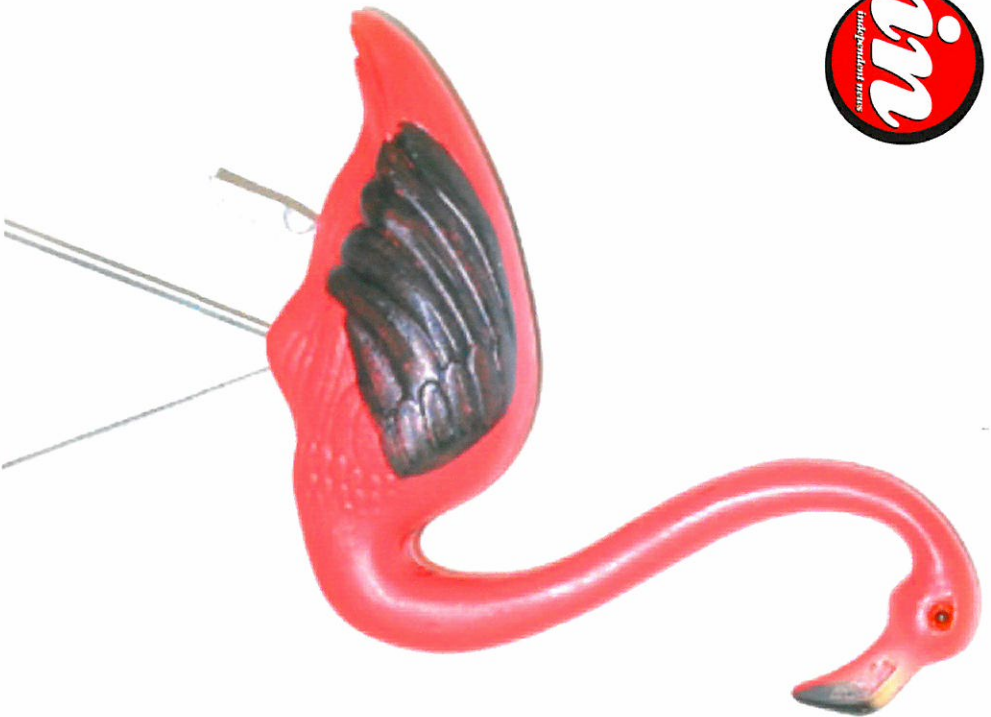

Yaddalingo

Baby boomers have found a new voice with the Yadda Talk women—DeeDee Ritchie and Cynthia Campfield. Since escaping the daily rag, these two columnists have roosted with the IN crowd. Northwest Florida will never be the same.

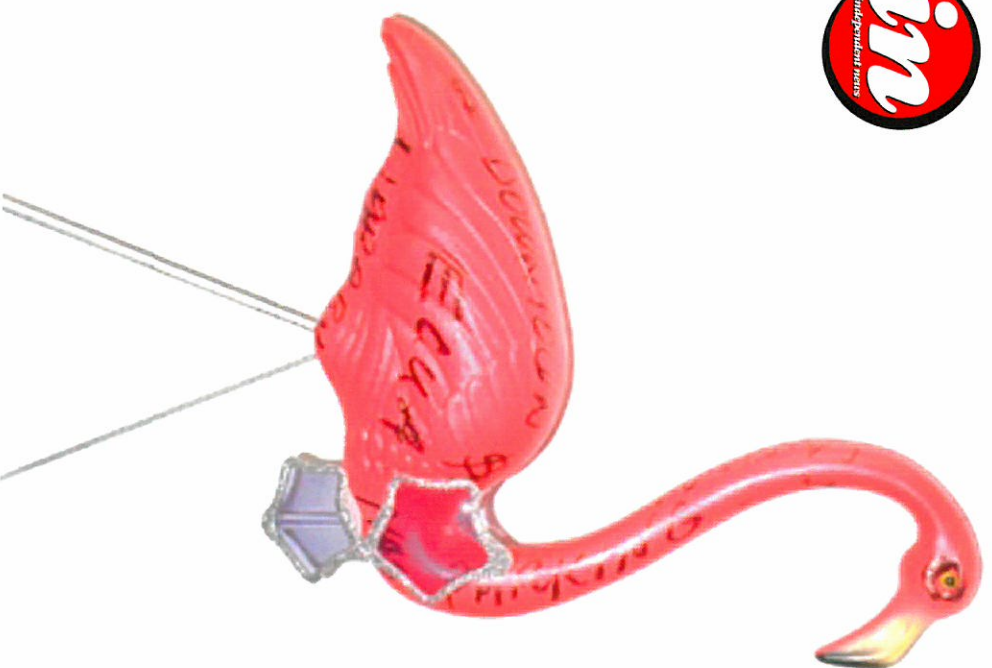

Cat-i-tude

Cat-i-tude is on the prowl to take over the country music scene. It's more than music. It's also about swagger and attitude.

Trillymingo

Trillymingo pays tribute to the Pensacola citizens' 2003 uprising to overthrow "representation without aspiration"—when citizens rescinded the Pensacola City Council's vote for a $40-million waterfront park/auditorium.

Studee

Studee is covered with a collage of all the studies county and city elected officials pay for every year, i.e., downtown historic district, the Port of Pensacola, public library, Main Street sewage factory, Via de Luna, Pensacola Bay Bridge and on and on and on...
