

ESTABLISHMENT, NAMING AND PRESERVATION OF HISTORICAL RESOURCES

- Adopted by Council Action June 22, 2000; Amended by Resolution August 21, 2010 effective Noon, January 10, 2011

Intent -- The City Council of the City of Pensacola recognizes that significant historical resources are the property of, or are located on property owned by, the City of Pensacola. It is the intent of the City Council, through this policy, to establish a procedure that will enable the citizens of the City of Pensacola to participate, to the maximum extent feasible, in the establishment, renaming, protection and preservation of these historical resources. Further, it is the council's intent to protect the historical resources of the City to the maximum extent feasible.

Process -- Any proposals or requests to name, rename, alter, establish, move or remove a qualifying historical resource that is the property of the city of Pensacola, or is located on property owned by the City of Pensacola, will be presented to the City Council of the City of Pensacola for consideration. The proposal may be made by individuals, organizations, City Council members, or the Mayor.

Any such proposal will be presented to the City Council for consideration and the proposal will be addressed as a regular agenda item of the Council. The Council may request a recommendation from the Mayor prior to final action. Additionally, the City Council may require one or more public meetings to discuss the proposal.

Notwithstanding the above, the City Council shall not take final action on any proposal under this policy until a minimum of thirty calendar days from the date the item is first introduced to City Council.

Criteria -- To determine whether a resource is a qualifying historical resource the following criteria will be applied: (*)

1. Districts, sites, buildings, structures, objects, and streets may be considered to have significance in Pensacola or American history, if they possess integrity of location, design, setting, materials, or workmanship, feeling and association, and:
 - a) are associated with events that made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history; and/or
 - b) are associated with the lives of persons significant in our past; and/or
 - c) embody the distinctive characteristics of type or period; and/or
 - d) have yielded or may be likely to yield information important in our history.
