Watched a webinar and the you tube video on applying for fema
Read their entire website regarding private nonprofits applying etc and the checklist
Also started our registration for the grant portal hoping to finish that today
I was told they don't give you access to the application by one person and then contradictory info from another lol
Will find out in the morning

Also side note PAWS responded and I'm doing discovery questions now at night lol

Please just handle. I cannot take on anymore.

Well good on Paws right?

So do what you need to do they fucked you. Go get them. Go get them. I have your back 100.

I will totally handle the fema crap
No worries at all
